Windermere's Cathedral City Office Welcomes New Agents

Cathedral City (Calif.) – June 2, 2012 – Windermere's Cathedral City office, located at 68-828 Ramon Road, is pleased to welcome its newest agents, Ricardo Nuno and Jessica Oertel. Ricardo Nuno brings over 14 years of Southern California real estate experience to his Windermere clients. SFR (Short Sales & Foreclosure Resource) certified, he specializes in REOs (bank owned), short sales, and income properties. The REO/Short Sale category is a substantial segment of the Coachella Valley real estate market, and working with REO/Short Sale Buyers brings Ricardo a deep satisfaction gained from helping families purchase their own home, frequently for the first time. His client base is supported by repeat Buyers and Sellers and referrals from his satisfied clients. What keeps them coming back? "They appreciate my dedication, integrity, and professionalism. I bring my very best to every transaction. That's my trademark."

Jessica Oertel, with over 20 years in customer service and sales experience, has been serving her real estate clients for over a decade. Jessica brings the strength and dedication gained from her earlier career in fitness instruction, with 6 certifications (Kids, Aqua, Zumba, Circuit, Elderly, and Toning). With real estate, she feels she has truly found her niche. "Real estate gives me the opportunity to represent those new to the English language, and to help build foundations for new and growing families," she says. "We work together to find the best living situations for their needs, and they know I will go that extra mile for them." Jessica's motto: I will put you FIRST!
